DEDICATION

Loyalty to a school is generated by athletic as well as scholastic achievements. Scholastic achievements are, in the most part, individual but athletic victories depend on the ability of individuals to function as a team. It is the coach's task to insure teamwork.

With pride in his coaching ability and gratitude for the victories as a result of his coaching that has given Westmont the reputation of a tough contender in football and baseball, the 1969 Phoenician dedicates its book to

MR. JAMES BALOGH

The background of the page is a black and white aerial photograph of a residential neighborhood. The image shows a grid of streets, numerous houses, and patches of green lawns and trees. In the upper left corner, there is a larger, more detailed view of a specific cluster of houses and streets.

"You win some, you lose a few, and the rest you tie," seemed to be the theme of the Westmont Hilltop football team.

Under the direction of head coach Paul Matsko, and backfield coach Emil Bolha, Westy came through with a 4-2-3 record, far below their hopes.

Plagued with pre-season and season injuries to Nunzio Tanase, one of the returning lettermen, Matsko relied mainly on Ev Custer, Tribune-Democrat 1968 Player Scholarship Award winner and his strong defensive team to balance what developed as the lowest scoring team since the 1961 season. With Doug Hand at the controls and Joe Skidel carrying the ball over, Westmont usually came through the game with at least one or more touchdowns.

Mid-way through the season, Tanase returned to his halfback position, delighted with the performance Gregg Conway had given as his replacement. Then two games later Skidel was taken out with a shoulder injury, and junior halfback Boyd Henry replaced him. Henry found new life in his job as he scored the first touchdown against Somerset, who had defeated Westmont 35-7 last year. With this new life, Westmont gained a measure of revenge with a 19-13 victory this season.

The team tried hard the entire year, and they were recognized for their strenuous efforts. The season's outcome may be attributed to a lot of things, but it was the spirit of the team that made it all possible.

JV'S POST WINNING SEASON

Under the guidance and leadership of two new coaches, Dee Bennett and Milton Lantz, the Scarlet JV Gridders managed a very successful 4-1-1 season. With Matty Cavaella calling the signals and such running backs as Boyd Henry, Joe Horvath, and Dave Sorsara, the Hilltoppers possessed a deadly offense.

The JV's were no exception in upholding Westmont's tradition as a tough defensive club. Its stalwart defense limited the scoring possibilities, blanking three of six opponents.

ALBAUGH SPURS HARRIERS

In his second season as cross country coach, Paul Claycomb hustled his harriers to an impressive season. Although taking top honors only twice, the cross country team placed second in six meets against stiff competition. Westy's thinclads captured sixth place out of twelve teams in the Ferndale Invitational. To highlight Coach Claycomb's season, Sophomore Jerry Albaugh copped third place in the District 6-B meet held at Logan Valley Junior High School and was very impressive in state competition at State College.

Next year, Coach Claycomb will lose the majority of his squad. With eleven Seniors departing, he will have to rely on veterans Jerry Albaugh, Earl Werner, Dan Fregly and Rick Wright to carry the brunt of the load. Using this as his nucleus, Coach Claycomb will have to rebuild his entire team.

Cross country is a deceptively difficult sport. To the casual observer, the deliberate pace of the cross country runner looks easy to maintain. In reality, maintaining that pace over a rough, two and one-eighth mile course is a grueling test of endurance. For this reason, cross-country occupies a place of great importance in the Westmont Hilltop athletic schedule. It is useful as a pre-season conditioner for wrestling and basketball. It is indispensable as a competitive test of strength for athletes too light or too small for football.

Ball control and leadership from Nunzio Tanase is what enabled Gary Pagano to make the fantastic shots that thrilled the crowd. High jumping from Tom Tiffany, John Rostosky, and Jim Robine also contributed to Westmont's quest for victory. Fine dribbling and quick reactions were exemplified by Mike Harrigan, Doug Hand, and defensive ball stealer Geoff Henry which rounded the Westmont Hilltop Basketball team.

Westmont began the season with a nine game winning streak until they were upended by Indiana, 56-65. Westmont rebounded by winning the next game but lost the next to Richland, 51-65, then defeated Ferndale 80-61. Somerset retaliated for a twenty six point drubbing and won 54-66. Westmont finished the season winning five out of the last seven games losing both these to Johnstown.

Westmont ended the season with a 15-6 record losing only to their toughest of competitors. Westy then went on to play the Class B District 6 play offs. Challenging Penn Cambria in their first game Westy broke ahead on their shooting to win 68-60. Westy went on to play Conemaugh Valley and came from an eleven point half time deficit to win 78-71. Westmont's final quest for the championship came against Richland, who upended Westmont 62-59. With less than three minutes remaining in the game and trailing by ten points, Richland rebounded and ended Westmont's hopes by a margin of three points.

With a three way tie for the Tri County League Title, and Richland drawing a bye for the match Westmont took on Indiana in the first game. Westmont controlled the game almost completely from beginning to end. Coach Emil Bolha's men fought for a 90-57 victory.

Westy and Richland met in the final game of the Tri County. Westmont fought hard and played tough but Richland came out on top, winning the game by a score of 57-68.

Basketball, as any other sport, takes a lot of determination and devotion by the coaches and the individual player. Westmont's basketball team exemplified both of these factors, and in the years to come they will continue to play in the fine sportsman like manner that they have in the past.

WRESTLING

The wrestling team, under the direction of head coach Paul Claycomb and assistant coach Richard Puhala, added another outstanding record in athletics, with a fine season mark of 10-2.

They fought hard against their opponents but due to pre-season jitters they dropped their first match to Penn Cambria 21-23. The team staged a great comeback as they won their next eight matches. Johnstown High was next to face Westmont and ended their victory skein by defeating them 14-28. The last two matches against Richland (28-17) and Northern Bedford (30-11) were won by Westmont to complete their season.

BASEBALL

The 1969 Westmont Hilltop baseball season could be characterized as a building year for next season. With the loss of 8 regulars from last years' Section 4 Championship team, new coaches Puhala and LeVan were forced to go with a team short on experience but long on desire. As a result the team finished with a 4-6 record.

The first half was not in Westmont's favor as they lost all five games. The second half brightened as Westmont won their sixth game against Ferndale 10-2. Furthering their exploits they captured their second win by defeating Conemaugh Valley 4-3. Johnstown crossed Westmont's path next and returned down town after getting a 6 beating. Westmont got their only second half loss from Conemaugh Township 3-5 but returned to win the final game against Conemaugh Valley 4-0.

TRACK TEAM

Sheer determination and hard practice under the guidance of Coaches Lambert and Lantz gave Westy's track team a very successful season. With a large return of lettermen, the Hilltoppers traveled to Cochran for a quadrangular meet with Johnstown, Windber, and Ligonier. The team amassed 30 points for a 3rd place. After placing tenth in the I.U.P. meet, our team traveled to Greater Latrobe, but were no match for the WPIAL class AA team. With a great showing in all events, Westy took a second place in a meet with Conemaugh Township, Windber, and Somerset. Unfortunately Westy lost a heart-breaker to Central Cambria in the Mountain Conference Relays. Hard work gave Westy its first victory in a track meet against Somerset and Conemaugh Township. After placing 2nd in the Mountain Conference Meet, Westmont made the long trip to Altoona and brought home a third place in the District 6 Meet. Steve Aronoff in the 220 and the 880 relay team qualified for the State Meet. Steve took a fifth place at States and the relay team also placed high.

Matt Bowman, Nunzio Tanase, and Bruce Cranston were three of the many standouts on our track team. Matt broke the old record in the discus with a throw of 135 ft. 11 in. Nunzio Tanase broke the triple jump record and then Bruce broke that record with a jump of 41 ft. 5 in.

The cheerleading season is the longest of all athletic seasons. Long hours of work are put into the development of cheers and polishing them into their best form.

This year's Varsity cheerleaders enthusiastically bolstered the spirit of Westmont fans through nine dazzling football games, twenty-one regular season basketball games, and three thrilling District 6, Class B basketball games. Before each game, the girls fired-up student spirit. During the games, the squad cheered tirelessly.

Also deserving recognition is the Junior Varsity cheerleading squad. Composed of sophomores and juniors, the squad performed their duties of cheering the Junior Varsity football and basketball teams to victory. They also led the wrestlers to a successful Varsity season.

Although they had thrilling seasons to cheer about, Westy's cheerleaders were dealt a heartbreakin blow when their hopes for a berth in the Annual Cheerleading Contest were laid low by an untimely hang-up in the mail. But this disheartening incident was borne courageously by the girls in red and gray.
